Planning a trip to Richmond?

Visit Richmond and immerse yourself in rich history, cultural diversity, a family (and dog friendly) environment, relaxed atmosphere and, best of all, a welcoming, friendly community where you can find your groove.

The city sits on 32 miles of waterfront, more than any other city on SF Bay. You'll love the expansive parks, easy trails and beautiful San Francisco Bay shoreline and views of the Golden Gate Bridge, Bay Bridge and Richmond Bridge. Indigenous plant and wildlife abound.

Richmond is close to the Napa and Sonoma Valleys and has its own wineries and breweries right here in town. Enjoy other culture from California Farm to Table and Southern BBQ to Mexican, Asian and American.

If you're looking for a home base to explore the SF Bay Area, Richmond makes a great base with its central location, quick access to highways in all directions, easy docking and parking and a great range of accommodation pricing with budget hotels from which to choose.

A great way to start your adventure is to stop by for a chat with the friendly folks at Visit Richmond CA in Point Richmond. They'll help you create the perfect itinerary. Or call them for advice on trip planning advice and get the most out of your stay!
